Monday 27 May 2013

Dear Parents, Caregivers and students,

As part of our SOSE unit (Making Laws in Australia) Year 7 students will be attending an excursion to Parliament House in Brisbane.

Date: Thursday 20 June 2013
8.45am – Depart from Humpybong State School. (Students to arrive promptly)
9.30am – Guided tour commences at Parliament House. A light morning tea for will be provided for students. This consists of biscuits and orange juice. Please advise if there are any students with food allergies, as fruit will be provided for them.
12 noon – Students have lunch in the Botanical Gardens. Please provide a suitable lunch and drink.
12.30pm – Depart Brisbane and return to Humpybong State School.

Please ensure that students have the following:

- Full school uniform including a wide brimmed hat
- food and suitable drink for lunch (no soft drinks or energy drinks)

If you had made payment for the cancelled Term 1 excursion, no payment is required. If you have not made payment for the cancelled Term 1 excursion, an invoice for $9 is attached.

Please ensure this amount is paid to the school Office by 11.30 am Monday 17 June 2013. This deadline is final and cannot be waived. It is your responsibility to ensure your money is paid and the permission slip returned on or before the deadline. Please do not send money to office or your classroom teacher after the deadline offering to pay as this will not be possible. Also remember our deadlines are not 3:00pm on deadline day, but 11:30 am as we need time to receipt and bank the payments – so please don’t leave it until the afternoon of cut-off date.

Please note that the Office is not able to supply change. Any overpayments will be credited to your student’s account to be applied against future invoices.

Please complete and sign the permission form below and return it to the school’s Office by 11.30 a.m. Monday 17 June 2013

Kind regards,

Year 7 teachers
Humpybong State School

Tim Adsett
